

Come back to Alaska with Rex Beach, 'Poleon Doret guides the expedition. The same upstanding 'Poleon made famous in "The Barrier" and in pictured drama.

Start Today. Step up to any newsstand. Get your copy of Hearst's for December. Sit in a big, soft arm chair before the fire in your own living room. And you are off.

Off to the land of snow, ice and perils. The land where strong men laugh and weak men quail, and every woman is a romance in herself. The land that made Rex Beach the author he is.

The new story by Beach is entitled "The Winds of Chance." If it is not the best story he has created, it surely is one of the best. Surely as good as "The Spoilers." Surely as good as "The Barrier." What more could be said of any story?

"The Winds of Chance" is written by a man's man; of a place where your heart might falter, your muscles fail, and your will crumble before the frozen blasts.

Only Rex Beach can show to you now with the heart of the world throbbing to the drum-fire, your elemental past. Come back to Alaska where the present is the past.

Buy December Hearst's today. Then come back to Alaska with Rex Beach and 'Poleon Doret.

Rex Beach

Another Great Story of Alaska

IN DECEMBER

Hearst's Magazine

OUT TODAY